As you may already know, Gary Born is about to finalize a new edition of his magnum opus, International Commercial Arbitration. With 4,500 pages soon to be published (April 2014) in three comprehensive volumes, this revised work will provide practitioners and academics with the most comprehensive and up-to-date commentary on international commercial arbitration.

We are delighted to announce that next week we are hosting an interview with Gary Born, which we will be making available on YouTube. We would like to give you, as a follower of Kluwer Arbitration Blog, an opportunity to submit a question(s) for Gary. The interview will be taking place next week so please send any questions you have to gwen.devries@kluwerlaw.com by 24th of January.

We look forward to receiving your questions.
