Introducing Annalise Nelson

Roger Alford (General Editor) (Notre Dame Law School) · Tuesday, November 8th, 2011

I am pleased to introduce Annalise Nelson as the new Assistant Editor for Kluwer Arbitration Blog. Annalise has a B.A. from Harvard College, a J.D. from University of Virginia and a Masters in Law and Economic Globalization from the Institut des Etudes Politiques (“Sciences Po”) and Paris I. She worked as a litigation, trade and international arbitration attorney at Hogan Lovells LLP in Washington, DC from 2007-2010, and recently completed a clerkship at the International Court of Justice in The Hague, Netherlands. In addition to her role as Assistant Editor of the Kluwer Arbitration Blog, she currently serves as Assistant to the President of an investment tribunal.

Welcome Annalise!
